Mrs. Louise Boyd Lewis

Established in 1994 as a branch library, the Lewis Library was formally named in honor of Mrs. Louise Boyd Lewis during the 40th anniversary celebration and dedication of the newly renovated administration building on the C. A. Fredd Campus on May 4, 2005. Mrs. Lewis served in many capacities at C. A. Fredd State Technical College from 1971 through 2000, including Title III Director from 1987 through 2000.

Mrs. Lewis received her B.A. from Alabama State College in 1967, received her M.A. degree from the University of Alabama in 1978, and did post-graduate work in Educational Leadership at the University of Alabama from 1988 through 1989. She was also a 1999 graduate of the Advanced Public Policy Institute of the Kettering Foundation and a 1993 graduate of the NIF Public Policy Institute of the University of Miami.

Mrs. Lewis has been a Reader/Evaluator for Title III and Student Support Services applications for the U.S. Department of Education since 1993. She has been an instructor in the Team Spirit Quality Initiative Program at Shelton State, and Co-Executive Secretary of the Shelton State Foundation.
